Find the right starting point for your AI journey.

The HBS team will work with you to understand your needs and business objectives. Then we'll help you determine the right entry point to put AI to work in a way that brings real value to your organization.

AI Readiness Assessment

Our team will work with you to determine your organization's readiness to adopt AI. Through the assessment, our team will help you:

- Identify your goals and define your business case for AI
- Assess your current technology state and ability to implement AI
- Identify any gaps to address and next steps to get started with AI in your organization

AI Roadmap

Define your future with AI through a 1-week, 2-week, or 3-week engagement with the HBS team. The AI Roadmap will help you:

- Align organizational leadership around clearly defined digital transformation goals
- Identify roadblocks and opportunities for AI within your digital transformation processes
- Create a strategic roadmap for implementing AI in your organization

Start building your future with AI.
